First Delta Air Lines Flight Departs from Guam USA

(Wednesday, June 3, 2009; Tumon, Guam USA) The first flight for new carrier, Delta Air Lines, departed from Guam today for Japan. Delta announced that it is adding a daily nonstop flight between Guam and Tokyo-Narita, beginning with this first flight.

Delta has come to Guam due to a merger between the carrier and Northwest airlines, which has serviced the island for many years. The new flight from Japan will compliment the existing service by providing more convenient connections for travelers. The new flight will be opertaed by one of Delta's 216-seat Boeing 767-300ER aircraft, which features 35 BusinessElite seats and 181 in economy class.

"The Guam Visitors Bureau is pleased to welcome Delta Air Lines to Guam and we look forward to forming a close partnership with them," said Acting General Manager Ernie Galito, "It's exciting for GVB and Guam to have a new partner to work with to grow our tourism industry."
